Tourist Visas

The maximum length of a Tourist Visa which can be given is normally three months. People of Ethiopian Origin may apply for up to six months.

Business Visas are required by travellers visiting for non-tourist purposes, eg conferences, visits to branch offices of companies and NGOs, and short consultancies. A letter of explanation/offer on relevant company letterhead is required. Resident Permits for long-term employment in Ethiopia are issued by the Department of Immigration after arrival Travellers intending to work long-term in Ethiopia should apply for a 3-month Business Visa from this Consulate, with a letter of offer of employment on company letterhead.

Multiple Entry Visas are automatically issued for visas which are three months or longer.

Applications to extend any Visa beyond its granted period may be made at the Department of Immigration in Addis Ababa or Dire Dawa.

Visa issue may take up to three working days, and will be returned in the envelope you supply.

The fees specified on this form may change. Current fees are available on the version of this form on our website at www.consul.com.au Our email address is ethiopia@consul.com.au
