

INSTRUCTIONS FOR APPLICATION FOR ETHIOPIAN PASSPORT or REPLACEMENT OF A LOST PASSPORT

Passport Applicants from Australia or New Zealand should send applications through the Consulate in Melbourne for authentication. Applications will be forwarded by the Honorary Consul-General to the Embassy of Ethiopia in Tokyo, Japan. They will then be forwarded to the authorities in Addis Ababa.

The following are required if you are applying for a new or replacement Ethiopian Passport

1. A signed personal letter from you stating you are applying for a Passport, and stating that you have NOT taken Citizenship of another country.
2. Completed Passport Application Form.
3. Four passport photos: 3 cm x 4 cm, coloured on white background.
4. A certified set of Fingerprints taken at a Police Station or at the Consulate. If you unable to come to the Consulate, please ask us for a letter to take to your local Police Station.
5. If a replacement passport is required due to loss of Passport, a Police confirmation report of the loss.
6. If a replacement is required due to loss of Passport, a photo copy of your lost passport or the number and date of issue of the lost passport.
7. If you are a first time applicant, you will need to provide some documents proving your Ethiopian Citizenship.
8. All Passport Applicants should supply certified copies of residence permits or residence Visas indicating they legally reside in Australia or New Zealand.
9. A fee of Australian$ 185 for Australian Residents, or Australian$ 225 for NZ Residents, payable to The Consulate of Ethiopia in Melbourne
